DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4 and 5 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Studin US Patent No. 6,337,076 in view of Blaine US Patent No. 6,572,878.

Studin discloses a method of treating and improving the appearance of scar by applying to the scar a fluid composition comprising a silicone gel (see claims 11, 13 and 21). However, he does not teach a method step for treating the scar with laser therapy. Blain teaches an alternative method for treating a scar using a silicone gel sheet. Blain further teaches that the use of laser therapy for treating a scar is known in the art (see col. 2, lines 14-17). Therefore, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify Studin in view of Blain and apply therapeutic laser energy to scar in addition to the silicone gel fluid so as to treat the scar, improve its appearance, and reduce the treatment time.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-12 are again objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed September 6, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's representative argues that neither Studin (US Pat. No. 6,337,076) nor Blain (US Pat. No. 6,572,878) is a prior art to the instant invention because the present application is a straight continuation of US patent application (09/173,990), which claims the benefit of a provisional application (60/063,754) filed October 17, 1997.

As indicated by the applicant's representative, the Examiner notes that this application is a continuation of US application 09/173,990, which claims the benefit of a provisional application 60/063,754, filed October 17, 1997. However, the present application is not given the priority date of the provisional application due to the following facts:

1. In reference to US patent application 09/173,990, applicant's representative failed to respond to the final Office Action (OA) mailed August 17, 2000.
2. Applicant's representative further filed to file extension of time to extend the shortened statutory period for response set in the OA of Aug. 17, 2000, which expired on November 18, 2000.

The instant application was filed on February 16, 2001, which is more than two months after the abandonment of parent application. Hence, the instant application has an effective filing date of February 16, 2001 and therefore is not given the priority date of the provisional application.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
